ITEM IX BOARD FORUM

Ms. Netzband shared that there were many positive comments regarding the VVS campus when the Rotary Leadership Institute was hosted here.

Mr. Adamkowski shared that Ms. Waters, Interim W.A. Wettel Principal, introduced herself to bus drivers on the first day of school, which meant a lot. It was mentioned that Ms. Waters rode a bus as well.

Ms. Boice commented on the student-created signs at W.A. Wettel welcoming board members tonight for the tour.

Mr. Kinne inquired about the replacement of sports uniforms and the status of the Sports Boosters. Mr. Wixson noted that Ms. Sanchez and Mr. Mitchell are working on a replacement plan for uniforms. The Sports Boosters' membership has decreased and their ability to staff the concession stand or provide other fundraisers has been affected. There is a Concessions Club for High School students, and funds raised support the VVS Teachers' Association student scholarships, not the Sports Boosters.

Ms. Boice enjoyed receiving the new employee intro newsletter and the Good News publication.

Ms. Boice inquired about how often teachers are able to collaborate during the year. Ms. Group noted that there are conference days, curriculum committee meetings, virtual meetings, etc., but she is unsure of the exact number of opportunities.
