ITEM I PUBLIC COMMENT

Robin Vanderwall of Sherrill inquired about a letter sent from the Sherrill Kenwood Free Library to the district regarding a Section 259 vote wherein the library board indicated it will not seek an increase in the library tax and asked that it be shared as a part of our Board of Education Meeting minutes. She also inquired if the district received a letter from the Vernon Public Library requesting a similar vote. Ms. Group provided information on her requests including that the district has received an inquiry, but not a request from the Vernon Public Library.

Kristin Sullivan of Verona inquired about public school funding cuts and if VVS is on a list of those districts that the Governor noted would receive less funding. Ms. Sullivan further inquired about what citizens could do. Ms. Group provided background information.
